Oakhill Day School Auction
February 28, 2015

Message from the Head of School

On behalf of Oakhill Day School, I want to welcome you to the Big Wig Shindig! This highly anticipated “social event of the year” is one of my personal favorites. Maybe it is the community participation... maybe it is the magnitude of fundraising potential and importance... maybe it is the quest for donation... or maybe it is the enormity of the night – the planning, the parent volunteers, the commitment, the dedication and the focus on an evening of perfection! We hope the evening becomes one you will not easily forget – quality items, bidders, and competition – the desire to “win” for the children.

This evening would not be possible without the generosity of our entire school community. Donors, underwriters, and advertisers have helped to ensure a successful event. Parents, Board Members, Teachers, Staff, and Friends of Oakhill have donated so much – time, energy, and resources! The entire Auction Steering Committee has spent countless hours and sleepless nights planning, organizing, giving so much, and “making” the auction what it is tonight!

Enjoy your evening... our children will directly profit from the fabulous night – tonight’s togetherness and generosity will bring success to Oakhill and its future!

Suzanne McCanles

2015 Emcee and Auctioneer

Michelle Davidson, co-host of “Kansas City Live” on KSHB 41, joins us for the first time as Emcee of tonight’s event. Michelle starred in feature films “Lucky” and “Nailbiter” and played a lifestyle reporter on “Boss” a STARZ Original Series featuring Kelsey Grammer.

Auctioneer Tanna Guthrie will help us raise our paddles! Tanna has raised hundreds of thousands of dollars for worthwhile causes like Oakhill. Her community involvement earned her the honor of being named one of KC Business Magazine’s “Influential Women of 2013.”
